Day 2: Don't Forget

Deuteronomy 6:10–12

Reflection: Moses warns Israel that abundance can make them forget the God who provided it. What we possess can become either a gift we steward or something we simply believe is ours.

Question: Where has comfort made it easier for me to forget God?

Action: Choose one possession and intentionally thank God for it.

Day 3: Day 3 — What Am I Doing With It? 1 Peter 4:8–11

Reflection: Our gifts aren't merely for ourselves. Sanctifying grace changes not only who we are, but what we do with what we have.

Question: Who could benefit from something God has entrusted to me?

Action: Use one ability, resource, or connection to help someone today.

Day 4: The Widow

Mark 12:38–44

Reflection: Jesus condemns leaders who “devour widows' houses,” then notices a widow giving everything she has. Her story challenges those with greater resources, influence, and power to consider how we use our muchness.

Question: Does what I have primarily benefit me, or does it also bless others?

Action: Give something today — money, time, attention, or help.

Day 5: What About Them?

John 21:20–22

Reflection: After Jesus gives Peter his calling, Peter asks about another disciple. Jesus responds, “What is that to you? Follow me!” Comparison can distract us from our own discipleship.

Question: Whose life or calling am I tempted to compare with mine?

Action: When comparison arises, pray: “Jesus, help me follow you faithfully.”

Day 6: Today's Strength

2 Corinthians 12:7–10

Reflection: Our capacity changes. God doesn't ask us for someone else's strength. Faithfulness means entrusting God with what we actually have today.

Question: What does faithfulness look like with the strength I have today?

Action: Take one faithful step—neither exceeding healthy limits nor avoiding what you can do.

Day 7: Altogether

Colossians 3:12–17

Reflection: An Altogether Christian isn't the person with the most to offer, but someone increasingly willing to place everything God has entrusted to them into God's transforming purposes.

Question: Who is God calling me to BE? Where is God calling me to GO? What is God calling me to GIVE?

Action: Pray: “God, everything I have is yours. Show me how to use it.”
